The sun is up get out of bed why do you run you run too far did she get up why do you sob you are a pet be not so bad

get me a rod are you in bed bid him get up ask him to go the sun is set the sky is red why do you nod

you nod as you sit you sit all too low you run all the day you are a bad boy did you bid him run did you ask him in did the boy get up did she run too far get up out of bed how far did you go the sun is not up the lad is in bed why do you run out was the way so bad can you eat an egg let us go to bed

be not so dull be not so rash be not so rude be not a fool be kind to all be just and true be a good boy be a good girl take off your hat make a fine bow go to your seat hold up your head call in the boys hang up your hat wade not too deep go soon to bed

run not too fast walk not too slow make not too free do harm to none keep from the dock I want a book read not too fast mind what you read walk with wise men play with good boys they talk too loud they drag too much what can you do when did you quit come in at two go home at five you grin like a fool you spit like a cat you roar like a calf you bark like a dog you bray like an ass you look like an owl you gape like a fool you skip like a lamb

you play by the way you lisp as you talk you do not take time you have miss'd a word you rise with the sun you aim to be wise you have got your task you may all go home

do not hang your head do not pick your nose do not tear your book do not tear your coat do not talk too much do not talk too loud do not dive too deep do not run too far did you mind your book did you mind your work did you wash your face did you comb your hair did you play the fool did you get the game did you ring the bell did you read the news-

let us go up to read speak out plain you speak as if you had plums in your mouth raise your voice you take no pains let the next class come up you have said it well

I am glad to meet you I hope you are well how have you been this long time I am glad to see you in good health when will you come to our house

Sir, here is one wants to speak with you

I am glad to see you, sir, pray walk in when did you come into town

I came last week

how long will you stay a month or six weeks

Sir, I take my leave of you can you not stop and dine a friend is to meet me at two o'clock are you sure he will come

I am not sure of it, but I must needs be in the way when are we to dine it is past one o'clock we do not dine till two you used to dine at one is the cloth laid place the chairs take your seat please to sit down what shall I help you to will you please to help yourself you see what there is please to cut me a slice of beef please to help me to some salad

What will you have to drink Give me a glass of ale Help me to a glass of it Sir, your good health
 Thank you, Sir
 How do you like the fare
 It is a feast for a king I drink the King's health

I pledge you, Sir What news do you hear at Court
 They talk of war
 What do you think of it I dare say it will be so I wish it may end well

Where shall we play Shall we play in the yard or in the field

Let us play in the yard What shall we play at At hand ball if you please Where is the ball
Who are to play

I cannot play so well as you We must do as well as we can

We must look to it, if we mean to win

You toss the ball too high That was a brave toss

Shall we have a game at the nine pins

With all my heart

Where are the pins

Who shall we get to set them up

That part is what I do not like

Jack and I will hold Frank and you

Toss up for the go

You have the lead

Play fair and get what you can

Well done, Frank

We have won the game

Which way shall we walk To the right or left What a fine day is here
The air is clear and calm There is scarce a cloud to be seen

How sweet the hay smells The corn will soon be ripe

There is like to be a fine crop

Let us look round us What a fine plain is here We may see ten or twelve miles at least

Hark, how the birds sing How sweet are their notes

Whose fine hat is that The house is new built
The park is full of deer Shall we go to yon wood
With all my heart
It is a sweet place
How thick the trees grow I wish the nuts were ripe

It is time we were at home I fear it will rain
The sky grows dark
It may be a great storm Let us go to the shade
It will not last long
The clouds break off
The sun peeps out

APPENDIX.

OF READING.

A good child will do as he is bid.

Mark the child that does well, and do so too.

Do thou to all men as thou wouldst wish they should do to thee.

Do not tell a lie.

THE GOOD GIRL.

Ann Rose was a good girl, but Tom Rose was a bad boy. Ann learned her book, and did as she was bid.—

Ann and Tom one day got some pence from a friend. Ann did not go and buy too much fruit, as Tom did sometimes, but kept her money to buy a doll.

That same day, as Tom and Ann stood at the door, a black man came up and asked for something to buy bread. When he held his hat to Tom, Tom made game of him, which was very rude; but Ann gave him the money she had.

The poor man was so glad when she gave him all this, that the tears came into his eyes for joy, and he thanked her ten times over; but shook his head at Tom and told him he had a hard heart.

As she came home from school one day, a great mad dog ran at her to bite her, and would have hurt her much, had not the black man come by just at the time, and beat down the dog with his crutch, and then went home with her.

How well it was for Ann that she made this poor black man her friend! I hope, too, all good boys and girls mind how they treat poor folks, for they cannot tell but one of them may prove a friend when they least think of it.

To be good and kind to all, will make all whom we know love us.

HYMN.

Come, let us praise God, for he is great; let us bless God, for he is very good.

He made all things; the sun to rule the day, the moon to shine by night.

He made the great elephant, and the whale, and the little worm that crawleth on the ground.

The little birds sing praise to God, when they warble sweetly in the green shade.

I will praise God with my voice; for I may praise him, though I am but a little child.

A few years ago, and I was a little infant, and my tongue was dumb within my mouth.

And I did not know the great name of God, for my reason was not come into me.

But now I can speak, and my tongue shall praise him; I can think of all his kindness, and my heart shall love him.

Let him call me, and I will come unto him; let him command, and I will obey him.

When I am older, I will praise him better; and I will never forget God, so long as my life remaineth in me.

THE GOOD BOY.

There was once a good boy, who took so much pains to learn his book, and to read and spell, that while some boys could scarce tell an O from an A, he would read his book all through, and tell what each of the words meant.

He did not play as he went to school, and lose his time; but made as much haste there as he could, and when school was done, went straight home.

His friends, when they saw how good he was, did all they could to please him, and gave him fine gold books. He read all the tales in them, and then told them to the good boys and girls he knew.

When he came from school he did not bring boys and girls in at once, but went to his friends to ask leave to play with them; and in all things was so good, that he went by the name of the king of the good boys.

His name was James Bright, and when the good boys and girls came to see him, they sat by the fire, and did not make a noise, or dirt the room, but each told a tale in his turn.

When James had leave from his friends they would play at blind man's buff, but that was when there was no fire in the room.

Poor Bob Short will have cause to think of that; for once he was at play so, and while he was blind, all the boys went out of the room that he might not find them, and he went too near the grate, and his clothes caught fire, and he was burnt so much that he was lame all his life.

LESSONS FOR CHILDREN.

Charles, what a clever thing it is to read. A lit-tle while a-go you know, you could only read little words, and you were forced to spell them: c-a-t, cat; d-o-g, dog. Now you can read pret-ty stories, and I am going to write you some.

Do you know why you are bet-ter then puss: puss can play as well as you, and can drink milk, and she can lie up-on the car-pet, and she can run as fast as you, and faster too, a great deal, and she can catch mice, which you cannot do. But can puss talk? No. Can puss read? No. Then that is the reason why you are better than puss—because you can talk and read. Can Piter-rot, your dog, read? No. Will you teach him? Take the pin and point to the words. No—he will not learn. I never saw a lit-tle dog or a cat learn to read. But little boys can learn. If you do not learn, Charles, you are not good for half as much as puss: you had better be drown-ed.

HYMN.

The Fa-ther, the Mo-ther. and their children, make a fa-mi-ly; the father is the mas-ter there-of. If the fa-mi-ly is numerous, and the grounds large, there are ser-vants to help to do the work; all these dwell in one house, they sleep be-neath one roof, they eat of the same bread, they kneel down to-geth-er, and praise God eve-ry night and eve-ry morning with one voice, they are very close-ly u-ni-ted, and are dear-er to each o-ther than stran-gers.

If one is sick they mourn to-ge-ther, and if one is hap-py, they re-joice to-geth-er.

Many houses are built togeth-er, many fa-mi-lies live near one another, they meet to-geth-er on the green and in plea-sant walks, and to buy and sell, and in the house of jus-tice, and the sound of the bell calleth them to the house of God, in company. If one is poor, his neighbours help him; if he is sad, they comfort him.

This is a village, see where it stands enclosed in a green shade and the tall spire peeps above the trees. If there be many houses, it is a town, and is governed by a magistrate.

Many towns and large extent of country, make a kingdom; it is enclosed by mountains, it is divided by rivers, it is washed by the sea; the inhabitants thereof are countrymen, they speak the same language, they make war and peace together, a king is the ruler thereof.

Many kingdoms and countries full of people, and large continents, and different climates, make up this whole world—God governeth it.

a hillock; some are black with the hot sun; some cover themselves with furs against the sharp cold, some drink of the fruit of the vine, some the pleasant milk of the cocoa nut and others quench their thirst with the running stream.

All are God's family, he knoweth every one of them, as a shepherd knoweth his sheep; they pray to him in different languages, but he understandeth them all, and heareth them all, he taketh care of all, none are so great that he cannot punish them, none are so mean, that he will not protect them.

Negro woman, who sittest pining in captivity and weeping over thy sick child, though none see thee, God seeth thee: though no one pitieth thee, God pitieth thee: raise thy voice, forlorn and abandoned one; call upon him from amidst thy bonds, for assuredly he will hear thee.

Monarch, that rulest over an hundred states; whose frown is as terrible as death, and whose armies cover the land, boast not thyself as though there were none above thee; his powerful arm is always over thee, and if thou doest ill: assuredly he will punish thee.

Nations of the earth fear the Lord, families of men call upon the name of your God.

GOOD RESOLUTIONS.

THOUGH I'm now in younger days Nor can tell what shall befall me, I'll prepare for every place Where my growing age shall call me.

Should I e'er be rich or great, Others shall partake my goodness; I'll supply the poor with meat, Never showing scorn or rudeness.

Where I see the blind or lame, Deaf or dumb, I'll kindly treat them, I deserve to feel the same,
If I mock, or hurt, or cheat them.

If I meet with railing tongues, Why should I return them railing?
Since I best revenge my wrongs By my patience never failing.

When I hear them telling lies, Talking foolish, cursing, swearing, First I'll try to make them wise, Or I'll soon go out of hearing.

What though I be low and mean, I'll engage the rich to love me ;
While I'm modest neat and clean, And submit when they reprove me.

If I should be poor and sick, I shall meet I hope, with pity ; Since I love to help the weak, Though they're neither fair nor witty.

I'll not willingly offend, Nor be easily offended ; What's amiss I'll strive to mend, And endure what can't be mended.

May I be so watchful still O'er my humours and my passion, As to speak and do no ill, Though it should be all the fashion.

Wicked fashions lead to hell ; Ne'er may I be found complying ;
 But in life behave so well,
 Not to be afraid of dying.

Be you to others kind and true, As you'd have others be to you ;
 And never do nor say to men, Whate'er you would not take again.
